

Science

- Exploring the characteristics of an animal which help it to live in their environment.
- Studying seasonal changes in the environment.
- Learning about living and non-living things.
- Asking and answering questions
- Observing changes in things.

P.E.

- Gymnastics performing sequences to move across various equipment using balances, rolls, jumps and other controlled movements.

R.E.

- Finding out about Christians and what they believe in.
- The Creation Story and Jonah and the Fish

Maths

- Addition, subtraction, multiplication and division
- Money and shape
- 2,3,5, and 10 times tables.

Music

- Playing new instruments and composing a piece of music to represent a dinosaur.

Art and Technology

- Using and mixing colour.
- Exploring how to use different lines and shapes in our work.
- Creating a simple cave painting.

Our Topic is themed on 'How do we know dinosaurs lived millions of years ago?'

This term we will be covering these

Geography

- Exploring hot and cold countries and which animals find these as good habitats.
- Keeping a diary of the weather.

ICT

- Understanding how to remain safe when using a computer and communicating online.
- Understanding algorithms and how they are used.

Reading

- 'The Wonderous Dinosaurium' and other story and poetry books about dinosaurs.
- Non fiction books relating to dinosaurs, fossils and Mary Anning.

History

- Discovering when and how dinosaurs lived long ago.
- Unearthing how people have come to know so much about fossils.